TIP SHEET

Chef's Tour: Rome
Under-the-radar picks in the Eternal City.

Chris Boswell, former executive chef of the American Academy in Rome and author of a new vegetable-driven cookbook, Verdure (Little Bookroom; $22), shares his insider haunts with T+L. Trattoria "In the quiet Gianicolense quarter, Cesare al Casaletto (39/0653-6015; $$$) prepares classic Roman dishes such as tonnarelli cacio e pepe." Café

"At the centro storico's Chiostro del Bramante (chiostrodelbramante.it), coffee is served in a Renaissance-era cloister with stone walls." Wine Bar "Few people know about L'Angolo Divino (angolodivino.it), near Campo de' Fiori, which focuses on biodynamic Italian wines. I like a crisp Verdicchio di Matelica." —KATIE PARLA
